FEATURED CHOIRS

ADELAIDE VOCAL UNION (SA)

Adelaide Vocal Union was formed in 2015 by Artistic Director Cameron DuRieu as an open space for men to sing, develop strong musicianship, and build genuine camaraderie. Bringing together singers aged from their 30s through to their 70s, AVU combines musical discipline with a relaxed, inclusive culture built on connection and shared experience.

Performing across Australia in concerts, festivals, and competitions, the group is known for tight harmony, confident stage presence, and an approach to a cappella that feels modern and accessible. In 2024, AVU made its first appearance at Hobart's Festival of Voices, delivering twelve performances across five days in venues including St David's Cathedral, MONA, and Hobart Town Hall.

AVU regularly collaborates with leading ensembles such as the award-winning Festival Statesmen and High Spirits Harmony.

Positioned between a vocal ensemble and a grown-up boy band, grey hairs and all, Adelaide Vocal Union delivers musical excellence with warmth, humour, and authenticity.

DEEP SOUTH CHORUS (TAS)

Deep South Chorus is Hobart's premier men's a cappella harmony chorus. With a diverse repertoire ranging from lively up-tunes to heart felt ballads, and from modern to the traditional, they offer something for everyone.

Deep South provides opportunities for men of all ages and walks of life to experience wonderful camaraderie and friendship, while exploring their voices. Part of the Southern Tasmania Harmony Club that formed 32 years ago, Deep South has maintained continuous national representation at Barbershop Harmony Australia festivals, starting with the Wellingtons chorus back in 1997.

Over the years, Deep South has established a strong and distinctive presence within BHA and the wider community, having previously won BHA Most Improved Chorus Award and National Men's Chorus Silver Medals.
